

Area9 Sponsors CCNT 2012 Customer Service Awards in the Outback

The Winners

Winner – Best Individual Public Sector – Peter Dash

Winner – Best Emerging Business – Tribal Essence

Winner – Best Individual – Dwight Frew

Winner – Best Business – Charbray Meats

Right: Southern Cross Television Alice Springs Manager Amy Ward and Bernadette Sciberras, Area9 Marketing Manager

With customer service being the hallmark of its business operations, Darwin IT company Area9 was proud to support the Chamber of Commerce NT 2012 Customer Service Awards in Alice Springs.

The Awards provided an opportunity to recognise and reward the hardworking individuals and businesses in the outback for their outstanding efforts in excellent customer service.

A gala presentation was held on Saturday 31 March 2012 at the Alice Springs Convention Centre. Australia's gentleman of comedy, Mark Mitchell, was the MC for the evening and kept guests laughing throughout the night, followed by live music duo NTT.

Area9 congratulates all nominees, finalists and winners and is delighted to have shared in the recognition of their fantastic efforts.

Right: Ingkerreke team members Skye Thompson and Steve Woolcock, and Beth Woolcock

Left: Area9 Director Simon Watt and Ingkerreke team member Cameron Miller

Bellette Studio Manager Sonya Lockhanover and partner in the foreground; Margo and Louise from the Ingkerreke team in the background